

DAVID CHENG, MANAGING PARTNER, GE CHENG & CO. (CHINA)

Mr. David W. CHENG is a managing partner and senior patent and trademark attorney as well as a founder of GE CHENG and Co. He received his M.D. in Medicine from China Medical University and L.L.M. from law School of Peking University. Before starting his intellectual property practice in 1985, Mr. Cheng worked in the Chinese Academy of Medical Sciences and Peking Union Medical College as a researcher. Mr. Cheng did many prosecutions and litigations relating to patent, trademark and copyright, particularly for life science as well as pharmaceuticals before courts. He wrote and translated many articles and books concerning the Chinese and foreign intellectual property laws. He is now a standing council member of the China Intellectual Property Society and All-China Patent Attorneys Association and LES China, a member of FICPI, AIPPI, INTA, AIPLA, and PTMG.